Application

- 2 (1) This regulation does not apply to an expense if an official has claimed compensation under section 7 of the Members' Remuneration and Pensions Act or under the Legislative Assembly Management Committee Act for that expense.
- (2) In circumstances in which an official is carrying out an official duty in more than one capacity as an official, the person is entitled to make only one claim under this regulation with respect to those circumstances.

Payment only with respect to official duties

- 3 (1) Subject to the Members' Remuneration and Pensions Act, an official may claim payment for travel expenses and allowances for official duties, including costs related to personal use of a government vehicle, only as specified in this regulation.
- (2) Payment must not be made to an official for travel expenses and allowances for official duties unless the payment is authorized by this regulation or under section 7 of the Members' Remuneration and Pensions Act.
- (3) Subject to this section, the entitlement of an official under this regulation to payment of travel expenses and allowances is in addition to
 - (a) the entitlement of the official to salary and benefits, and
 - (b) the entitlement of the official to travel expenses and allowances arising from work other than for official duties.

2 Sections 5 to 7 are repealed and the following substituted:Further application of Treasury Board policy

- 5 (1) Treasury Board policy respecting financial administration policy and procedures applies to the following categories of expenses incurred by officials:
 - (a) use of privately owned vehicles to discharge official duties;
 - (b) use of rental vehicles to discharge official duties;
 - (c) use of public transportation to discharge official duties;
 - (d) communication expenses incurred to discharge official duties;
 - (e) attendance and participation in meetings to discharge official duties.
- (2) Subject to this regulation, the provisions of the Treasury Board policy for Group IV applies with respect to
 - (a) travel expenses and allowances payable to an official who is travelling for the purpose of discharging official duties, and
 - (b) out of pocket and other expenses incurred by an official for the purpose of discharging official duties.
- (3) If an official with a physical disability requires a personal attendant in order for the official to travel to discharge official duties, the personal attendant may claim, as if the attendant were an official, for expenses incurred and allowances permitted under this regulation for the period that the personal attendant aided the official in the discharge of official duties.

- (4) Subject to subsection (3), a personal attendant includes a spouse.

Capital Regional District hotel accommodation

- 6 (1) Subject to subsection (2), this section applies to an official who
- (a) has filed with the Legislative Comptroller of the Legislative Assembly a Capital City Allowance election form in which the official selects hotel accommodation within the Capital Regional District constituencies as the type of accommodation for which he or she may be reimbursed as a member under the Legislative Assembly Management Committee Act, and
 - (b) is not a Member of the Legislative Assembly representing a Capital Regional District constituency.
- (2) If an official to whom this section applies files with the Legislative Comptroller of the Legislative Assembly another Capital City Allowance election form that sets out a different type of accommodation for reimbursement under the Legislative Assembly Management Committee Act, this section ceases to apply to the official from that date until the official files another form of the type referred to in subsection (1) (a).
- (3) Subject to subsection (4), an official may be reimbursed, in accordance with the Treasury Board policy, for the following costs of hotel accommodation in a Capital Regional District constituency, up to a maximum of $17 000 per fiscal year:
- (a) room charges;
 - (b) parking fees;
 - (c) internet service;
 - (d) applicable taxes on the costs referred to in paragraphs (a) to (c).
- (4) An official may be reimbursed under this section only if the hotel accommodation is needed for the purposes of the official discharging his or her official duties.

Meal allowance

- 7 If an official is not at home while discharging official duties, the official may be paid, for each day or portion of a day the official discharges those official duties, either
- (a) subject to paragraph (b), an allowance of $61 per day, or
 - (b) if the official claims an amount that is less than $61 per day, the amount the official claims.
